Russell Moore & IIIrd Tyme Out

with Lonesome Otis

October 28th, 2010

Rancho Cordillero del Norte Theatre
Northridge CA 91234

Limited Seating!

You've listened to their CDs for years. You've seen them on the Main Stage at Huck Finn and maybe the Ford Theatre. But you've never experienced them like this. The Rancho Cordillero de Norte Theatre in Northridge holds only 150 seats and not a bad one among them. So get ready to meet Russell Moore & IIIrd Tyme Out up close and personal.

BASC is proud to present the Bluegrass band that has been honored with over fifty industry awards, including IBMA's "Vocal Group Of The Year" for seven consecutive years, in their last Southern California performance of the year. Of this group of Bluegrass superstars, Chris Stuart has written, "IIIrd Tyme Out has their own brand of bluegrass: unmatched quartets and trios, masterful lead singing, dead-on rhythm, tasteful fills, lyrical solos, and great songs.

From stage left to right they are a complete band – perhaps the most complete band of the past two decades" Opening for TTO will be one of Southern California's most accomplished and popular Bluegrass bands, Lonesome Otis. Seating is limited, so order you tickets early and don't be disappointed.

6:30 to 9:00 PM

Lonesome Otis is a gathering of new and experienced talent. With its ability to provide clean instrumentals and harmonies, LO is guaranteed to satisfy even the most critical of bluegrass music aficionados.

LO is a dedicated band that specializes in hard-driving, classic bluegrass but also has an appreciation for a slightly more contemporary feel. Their set lists include traditional, gospel, contemporary, and original songs written by the band members themselves. Here's a sample of some of their review: "Lonesome Otis is a perfect example of a band that plays great music not just by having excellent musicians, but by playing extremely well together as a band. They were easily one of the best bands in our festival." Ken Frankel - San Francisco Bluegrass & Old-Time Festival

"Lonesome Otis did a great job at our Logandale, NV festival. Everybody loved their music. We look forward to having them back again next year!" Al Bess, Southern Nevada Bluegrass Music Society

"It was great working with you and our crowds raved about your professional performance. We hope we are fortunate enough to have you with us in future festivals." Kate Barrington, Heritage Festivals.

Admission to the BASC Bluegrass Night at the Braemar is $5.00, which includes coffee, tea, and soft drinks. $16.00 admission also includes the world famous Braemar Country Club pasta bar which opens at 6:15 PM. Bar service available. There is ample seating and safe and secure free parking. Advance reservations suggested. Call Harley Tarlitz at (818) 221-4680.

About BASC

BASC is dedicated to the support and promotion of Bluegrass music at all levels.

We support Bluegrass at the amateur level with our monthly Jam in the Park where pickers of all levels and experience are welcome. We provide a showcase for the best local Bluegrass bands at our monthly BASC Night at the Braemar.

We build interest in Bluegrass by bringing some of the best national bands to Southern California, including such artists as J.D. Crowe, Laurie Lewis, IIIrd Tyme Out, James King, and The Special Consensus.

Most important, we provide a place where people who want to get connected to Bluegrass as pickers, as listeners, as volunteers or organizers - can get together and meet people who share their love of this great music.
